Re: Bob Brady For Congress Committee
ID# C00333740

Dear Ms Kelly:

This letter is in response to your letter concerning our Year End Report for 2005. Specifically this letter addresses our procedures to ensure that no entity contributes to the committee in excess of the Federally mandated limits.

In the case mentioned in your letter, we were in the process of moving our offices and an error was made in inputting the information into the computer system. The contribution should have been designated for the general election not the primary election. This should not happen in the future.

The first step in the process is to double check all computer entry against the original documents within seven (7) days of being entered and make any necessary corrections or identify any contributions that need to be reattributed or redesignated.

The second step in the process is if the contribution needs to be reattributed, we would contact the individual(s) in question in writing within thirty (30) days requesting that they notify us in writing that they authorize a reattribution and indicate the amount of the contribution to be attributed to each contributor. Or if the reattribution is done by the committee, we will notify the contributor within thirty (30) days of the action taken by the committee and give the contributor the opportunity to receive the a refund of the excessive portion.

The third step in the process is if the contribution can be redesignated we would contact the contributor(s) in writing within thirty (30) days requesting that they notify us in writing that they authorize us to redesignate the contribution for another election, assuming that the redesignation amount does not exceed the Federal limitations for that election. Or if the redesignation is done by the committee, we will notify the contributor within thirty (30) days of the action taken by the committee and give the contributor the opportunity to receive a refund of the excessive amount.

If these time lines are not met, the committee will refund the excessive amount to the contributor. In the case addressed in your letter the contribution dated December 12, 2005 by the I.B.E.W. - C.O.P.E. PAC in the amount of $5,000.00 is in the process of being corrected. When we file our Year End amended report today we will change the designation from Primary To General Election, per our conversation today.

Finally an amended report for the year end report will be filed electronically today.

We belive that this procedure will result in our being in compliance with the Federal Election Commission rules & regulations.
